Chapter-III – Scope of Activities

A. Duties and Responsibilities of an NBFC-AA

14. The duties and responsibilities of an NBFC-AA are as under:

(1) NBFC-AA shall provide services to a customer based on the customer's explicit consent.

(2) NBFC-AA shall ensure that the providing of services to a customer shall be backed by appropriate agreements/ authorisations between the NBFC-AA, the customer and the Financial Information Providers.

(3) NBFC-AA shall not support transactions by customers.

(4) NBFC-AA shall ensure appropriate mechanisms for proper customer identification.

(5) NBFC-AA shall share information as referred to under paragraph 8(4) only with the customer to whom it relates or any other financial information user as authorised by the customer in accordance with the terms of the consent provided by the customer.

(6) NBFC-AA shall not undertake any other business other than the business of account aggregator. Deployment of investible surplus by an NBFC-AA in instruments, not for trading, shall however be permitted.

(7) No financial information of the customer accessed by the NBFC-AA from the financial information providers shall reside with the NBFC-AA.

(8) NBFC-AA shall not use the services of a third party service provider for undertaking the business of account aggregation.

(9) User authentication credentials of customers relating to accounts with various Financial Information Providers shall not be accessed by the NBFC-AA.

(10) NBFC-AA shall have a Citizen's Charter that explicitly guarantees protection of the rights of a customer. The NBFC-AA shall not part with any information that it may come to acquire from/ on behalf of a customer without the explicit consent of the customer.

(11) In the event of any difference in position of financial information in the statement generated by/from the NBFC-AA and the books of the Financial Information Provider, the position as reflected in the records of the Financial Information Provider shall be considered as correct.

B. Consent Architecture

15. No financial information of the customer shall be retrieved, shared or transferred by the NBFC-AA without the explicit consent of the customer.

16. An NBFC-AA shall perform the function of obtaining, submitting and managing the customer's consent in accordance with these directions.

17. The consent of the customer obtained by the NBFC-AA shall be a standardised consent artefact which shall contain the following details, namely: —

- (1) identity of the customer and optional contact information;
- (2) the nature of the financial information requested;
- (3) purpose of collecting such information;
- (4) the identity of the recipients of the information, if any;
- (5) URL or other address to which notification needs to be sent every time the consent artefact is used to access information
- (6) Consent creation date, expiry date, identity and signature/ digital signature of the NBFC-AA; and
- (7) any other attribute as may be prescribed by the Reserve Bank.

18. The consent artefact can also be obtained in electronic form.

19. At the time of obtaining consent, the NBFC-AA shall inform the customer of all necessary attributes to be contained in the consent artefact as per paragraph 17 above and the right of the customer to file complaints with relevant authorities in case of non-redressal of grievances.

20. NBFC-AA shall also provide its customers a functionality to revoke consent to obtain information that is rendered accessible by a consent artefact, including the ability to revoke consent to obtain parts of such information. Upon revocation, a fresh consent artefact shall be shared with the Financial Information provider.

21. An electronic consent artefact shall be capable of being logged, audited and verified.

C. Sharing of financial information by Financial Information Providers upon valid consent artefact being presented

22. Financial Information Providers shall share financial information of a customer with an NBFC-AA on being presented a valid consent artefact by an NBFC-AA in accordance with paragraphs 15 to 21.

23. Upon being presented the consent artefact, the Financial Information Provider shall verify:

- (1) validity of consent
- (2) specified dates and usage; and
- (3) the credentials of the NBFC-AA through appropriate means.

24. Upon due verification, the Financial Information Providers shall digitally sign the financial information and securely transmit the same to the NBFC-AA in accordance with the terms contained in the consent artefact.

25. All responses of the Financial Information Provider shall be in real time.

26. To enable these data flows, the Financial Information Providers shall:

- (1) implement interfaces that will allow an NBFC-AA to submit consent artefacts, and authenticate each other, and would enable secure flow of financial information to the NBFC-AA;
- (2) adopt means to verify the consent including digital signatures, if any, contained in the consent artefact;
- (3) implement means to digitally sign the financial information that is shared by them about the customers;

(4) maintain a log of all information sharing requests and the actions performed by them pursuant to such requests and submit the same to the NBFC-AA.

D. Use of information by NBFC-AA and Financial Information User

27. Where financial information has been provided by a Financial Information Provider to an NBFC-AA for transferring to a Financial Information User with the customer's explicit consent, the NBFC-AA shall:

- (1) verify the identity of the Financial Information User; and, if verified,
- (2) securely transfer the customer's information to the intended recipient in accordance with the terms of the consent artefact.

28. Where financial information has been provided by a Financial Information Provider to an NBFC-AA for transferring to the customer or to a Financial Information User, it shall not be used or disclosed by an NBFC-AA or the Financial Information User except as may be specified in the consent artefact.

E. Joining the Account Aggregator Ecosystem as Financial Information User

29. With a view to ensure efficient and optimum utilisation of the Account Aggregator ecosystem, regulated entities of the Reserve Bank joining the Account Aggregator ecosystem as Financial Information User shall necessarily join as Financial Information Provider also, if they hold the specified financial information and fall under the definition of Financial Information Provider.

F. Data Security

30. NBFC-AA shall adhere to the following:

- (1) Business of an Account Aggregator will be entirely Information Technology (IT) driven. NBFC-AA shall adopt required IT framework and interfaces to ensure secure data flows from the Financial Information Providers to its own systems and onwards to the Financial Information Users.
- (2) NBFC-AA shall not request or store customer credentials (like passwords, PINs, private keys) which may be used for authenticating customers to the Financial Information providers. Access by an NBFC-AA to customer's information shall only be based on consent-based authorisation.

(3) The technology should also be scalable to cover any other financial information or Financial Information Provider as may be specified by the Reserve Bank in future.

(4) There shall be adequate safeguards built in its IT systems to ensure that it is protected against unauthorised access, alteration, destruction, disclosure or dissemination of records and data.

(5) Appropriate measures for Disaster Risk Management and Business Continuity shall be in place.

(6) Information System Audit of the internal systems and processes shall be in place and shall be conducted at least once in two years by CISA certified external auditors. Report of the external auditor shall be submitted to the Regional Office of the Department of Supervision of the Reserve Bank, under whose jurisdiction the Registered Office of the NBFC-AA is located, within one month of submission of the report by the external auditor.

G. Guidance Note on Operational Risk Management and Operational Resilience

31. NBFC-AA may make use of the 'Guidance Note on Operational Risk Management and Operational Resilience', as amended from time to time.

H. Technical Specification for all participants of the Account Aggregator ecosystem

32. The NBFC-AA consolidates financial information of a customer held with different financial entities under different financial sector regulators. In order to ensure that movement of data among different financial entities, spread across financial sector regulators adopting different IT systems and interfaces is secured, duly authorised, smooth and seamless, a set of core technical specifications for the participants of the AA ecosystem have been framed by Reserve Bank Information Technology Private Limited (ReBIT), and published the same on its website (www.rebit.org.in).

33. All regulated entities of the Reserve Bank, acting either as NBFC-AA or Financial Information Providers or Financial Information Users are expected to adopt the technical specifications published by ReBIT, as updated from time to time.

34. The document referred to in paragraph 32 above only provides specifications for Application Programming Interfaces (API). It shall be the responsibility of the NBFC-AA to ensure that its IT systems have all features necessary to carry out its functions strictly in conformity with these Directions as updated from time to time.

I. Rights of the customer

35. An NBFC-AA shall enable the customer to access a record of the consents provided by him and the Financial Information Users with whom the information has been shared.

36. An NBFC-AA shall not use or access any customer information other than for performing the business of account aggregator explicitly requested by the customer.

J. Customer Grievance

37. An NBFC-AA shall have in place a Board approved policy for handling/ disposal of customer grievances/ complaints. It shall have a dedicated setup to address customer grievances/ complaints.

38. Customer complaints shall be handled/ disposed of by the NBFC-AA within such time and in such manner as provided for in its Board approved policy, but in any case not beyond a period of one month from its receipt.

39. At the operational level, NBFC-AA shall display the following information prominently, for the benefit of customers, on the website and at the place/s of business:

(1) the name and contact details (Telephone / Mobile nos. as also email address) of the Grievance Redressal Officer who can be approached by the public for resolution of complaints against the company.
